Dear Dr. Glander,

- Now that your book has been assigned in our system, I am pleased to introduce myself as the person in charge of co-managing your book until it is passed to production. This email serves to provide you with certain guidelines and manuscript requirements.
- For your reference, I have provided the Catalog number that has been assigned. Because we deal with thousands of manuscripts, please use this number in all correspondence, in the subject line of emails, so that I may quickly reference your book. You may also use this information for searches via our website.

CAT #: K35751

Several things to remember:

1. If you are writing with LaTeX, ask your acquisitions editor for the appropriate style file.
2. If you are writing with Word, we need an unformatted file. Do not place figures and tables within the text.

Double space, do not use manual page breaks, and include figures and tables at the end of each chapter. Place lines such as “Insert Figure 1.1 here,” “Insert Table 2.2 here” within the text.

In sum, do not try to make your Word pages look like book pages. We will format, copyedit, and index your file when the content is final.

For both LaTeX and Word books, send us the first set of chapters completed so we can review the formatting in the early stages.

3. If you are editing a book, each contributing author must sign a contributor authorization form giving us the copyright to the article. When the table of contents is final, please send me a list of contributor names and email addresses, in an Excel file. *Volume and series editors do not have to complete this form.

Abstracts/ORCID ID's:

Authors should submit abstracts as a separate Word file with each abstract labelled by chapter. The file should be named Chapter Abstracts followed by the title of the book and ISBN.

Permissions:

Please see the attached documents that will answer your questions as to whether or not you will need to secure permission to use an art image. Please begin this process early on so as to not delay production of your book.

Tax forms:

We will need tax forms from you only if you have never completed a tax form for us before or if your address has changed from that on a previously completed tax form.

W-9 vs W-8BEN?

A W-9 is for US citizens. The W-8BEN is for citizens outside of the United States.

Electronic Direct Deposit Payment forms are optional, but highly recommended.

The best email addresses are personal accounts (i.e. Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail) – those that are less likely to change. The best mailing addresses are residence addresses. Once you have completed these forms, kindly send them to my attention.

Again, I welcome you. Our goal is to work with leading authors, like yourself, to publish quality books. Our loyal readership and long-standing relationships with our authors and editors reflect our dedication and integrity.

We are proud to be representing your work and look forward to many fruitful endeavors!

Please feel free to contact me by phone or email should you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Sherry Thomas
